

Level 5

Coaching Professional

TYPICAL DURATION: 14 MONTHS

Role Profile

This occupation exists across all sectors—public, private, and third—nationally and internationally. Coaches work with individuals and teams to improve professional performance through non-directive support, deep listening, and reflective questioning. They help build self-belief, foster resilience, adaptability, and drive transformation. Coaches work one-to-one or with teams, virtually or in person, and interact with stakeholders at all levels, including HR and L&D teams. Responsibilities include managing coaching relationships, ensuring practice quality, embedding coaching in leadership, supporting strategic change, and enabling inclusive development. Coaching is vital in today's fast-paced, evolving, and increasingly diverse environments.

Additional Requirements

English and maths qualifications must be completed in line with the apprenticeship funding rules
