

Level 3

Community Health & Wellbeing Worker

TYPICAL DURATION: 12 MONTHS

Role Profile

This occupation is found in different organisations and is commissioned by a range of agencies, including local government, the NHS, and other funders such as charities and social enterprise organisations.

An employee in this occupation will be responsible for:

- building relationships with people, having strengths-based conversations with and supporting individuals to make changes in their lives
- literature, information and materials (collateral) relating to health, care, education, welfare, employment, appropriate for different levels of health literacy and in a range of languages.
- worker (paid or unpaid) supervision and/or guidance.
- small local budgets, 'petty cash', or being an authorised signatory for small payments within the scheme of delegation.
- equipment and resources, such as supplying carbon monoxide monitors, using cholesterol testing kits, android or smart devices, laptops and secure file storage.

Additional Requirements

English and maths qualifications must be completed in line with the apprenticeship funding rules

Course Content

During their apprenticeship, individuals gain skills, knowledge, and behaviours in their chosen role and industry. The occupation duties of the Community Health and Wellbeing Worker apprenticeship include promoting health and wellbeing, building local resilience, providing advice on local services, managing referrals, and supporting individuals and groups in making decisions to improve their health and wellbeing.

Apprenticeship Assessment

This Apprenticeship has 3 assessment methods.

- Multiply Choice Test
 - Demonstration of Practice
 - Professional Discussion
- (underpinned by portfolio)

Typical Job Roles

Care or service navigator

Community connector

Community health champion

Health trainer

Social prescribing link worker

Live well coach

To learn more about opportunities for full or part funded, high quality training for you and your staff, call 01775 513050, or e-mail us at info@steadfasttraining.co.uk